

Cookie Notice – M.D. ADVISORY SERVICES LTD

1. What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you browse our website. They help the site work and improve your experience. Some cookies also collect information about how visitors use a website.

2. Cookies We Use

We use the following categories:

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These are essential for core website functionality and do not require prior consent. They enable services you request (e.g., session management).

Performance & Analytics Cookies

These help us understand how the website is being used (e.g., pages visited) so we can improve performance. These are only used with your consent.

Functional Cookies

These allow enhanced functionality (e.g., remembering preferences) but are not strictly necessary. Consent is required.

3. Consent

We rely on the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations (PECR) which sit alongside the UK GDPR. Except for strictly necessary cookies, we will only set cookies if you have given clear consent before they are used. You can manage or withdraw consent at any time via the cookie banner or settings tool on the site.

4. Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies may be placed by third-party services (e.g., analytics providers). These will only be enabled with your consent.

5. How to Control Cookies

Most browsers allow you to manage cookie preferences via settings (e.g., block or delete cookies). However, disabling some cookies may affect website functionality. You can learn more about cookies at <https://allaboutcookies.org/>

6. More Information

For more detail about how we use cookies and your data, please refer to our full Privacy Notice.
